

Carnegie Mellon University
Informatics and Mathematics Competition
Release & Permission

Permission to Participate: I grant permission for my minor child to participate in the Carnegie Mellon University (“CMU”) 2017 Informatics and Mathematics Competition scheduled for January 28, 2017 (the “Competition”). If I am not accompanying my child to the Competition, I grant permission for my child to attend the Competition accompanied by a chaperone selected by my child’s Competition Team.

Permission to Take Photos/Videos. I grant permission for CMU (or someone acting on CMU’s behalf) to take photos and/or make audiovisual recordings of my child in connection with the Competition and to use the resulting materials and my child’s name in CMU or other publications and on CMU and other web sites for educational and promotional purposes.

Permission for Medical Treatment. If I am not accompanying my child, I grant permission for CMU to secure medical treatment for my child in the event of an emergency, as determined by CMU.

Release of Liability and Promise Not to Sue. In return for the opportunity for my child to participate in the Competition, I, on behalf of myself and my child, (and anyone acting on my or my child’s behalf), hereby, to the fullest extent permitted by law, release CMU (and anyone acting on CMU’s behalf) from any liability of any kind and further promise not to sue or file any claim or action against CMU (and anyone acting on CMU’s behalf) for any reason whatsoever connected with the my child’s participation in the Competition and/or my or my child’s presence on CMU’s campus (including without limitation, transportation and the securing of or failure to secure medical treatment).

Governing Law. The laws of Pennsylvania will apply to this document. If any provisions are declared illegal or unenforceable, they shall be deemed severable, and all other provisions will remain valid and binding. I’ve read this document, understand it, and intend to be legally bound by it. I’m the child’s legal parent/guardian and I’m an adult (18 or older).
